

UNVEILING APARTHEID

The Struggle for LAND and FREEDOM in Palestine 1948

Featuring Film Showing:

500 DUNAM ON THE MOON

(2002, 48 min) examines Ayn Hawd, a Palestinian village captured and depopulated by Zionist armies in 1948, and "Ein Hod", the Zionist "artists' colony" established over Ayn Hawd. This film presents the story and the resilience of the people of Ayn Hawd - and the Palestinian people as a whole - in their struggle for land and freedom.

Presentation and discussion led by SAID SHEHADEH, 1948
Palestinian and graduate student at Rutgers University.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 16 - 7:00 pm

NEW BRUNSWICK PUBLIC LIBRARY

(Henry Guest House)

60 LIVINGSTON AVE - NEW BRUNSWICK, NJ

Sponsored by:

New Jersey Solidarity - Activists for the Liberation of Palestine

www.newjerseysolidarity.org

info@newjerseysolidarity.org

973-954-2521

Photograph of Ayn Hawd under occupation, 1954.