Film Showing and Benefit for Balata Film Collective U.S. Tour

The Balata Film Collective is an important initiative empowering young Palestinians in Balata refugee camp, near Nablus, to make their own films. Film is an important means of both resistance and communication. The Balata Film Collective was initiated to enable young Palestinians from Balata to break their isolation, challenge their oppression and and represent their lives to the world. This event is a benefit to help bring three Palestinian filmmakers to the U.S. to show their films in a national tour.
