PALESTINE AWARENESS WEEK AT RUTGERS - MARCH 29- APRIL 2

Commemorating Land Day, Fighting for the Future

MONDAY, MARCH 29, 2004 - 7:00 PM

DR. JOSEPH A. MASSAD

"THE PERSISTENCE OF THE PALESTINIAN QUESTION"

NEW BRUNSWICK PUBLIC LIBRARY, COMMUNITY ROOM

60 LIVINGSTON AVENUE, NEW BRUNSWICK, NJ

Dr. Joseph Massad is a professor of Modern Arab Politics and Intellectual History at the Department of Middle East and Asian Languages and Cultures of Columbia University and author of "Colonial Effects: The Making of National Identity in Jordan," as well as many published articles and chapters in books and scholarly journals. He is one of today's foremost scholars on Palestine and Arab society.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 31, 2004 - 7:00 PM

KILLER COKE: COCA-COLA FROM COLOMBIA TO PALESTINE TO RUTGERS

WITH COLOMBIAN TRADE UNIONIST LUIS ADOLFO CARDONA

RUTGERS UNIVERSITY LABOR EDUCATION CENTER

50 LABOR CENTER WAY (CORNER OF RYDERS LANE AND LABOR CENTER WAY),

NEW BRUNSWICK, NJ

Hear the man Coca-Cola tried to kill! Find out the TRUTH about the corporation that holds Rutgers' EXCLUSIVE CONTRACT! Hear Luis Adolfo Cardona, a Colombian trade unionist and former Coca-Cola bottling plant worker who saw the lead union negotiator at his plant assassinated on December 5, 1996. Later that day, he was kidnapped, headed for the same fate - until he escaped to Bogota, Colombia's capital, with his family. He continued to receive threats in Bogota, where he worked for SINALTRAINAL, the Colombian labor federation, and has come to the US with the AFL-CIO.

FRIDAY, APRIL 2, 2004 - 7:30 PM

REPORTBACKS FROM OCCUPIED PALESTINE

WITH SAMIA HALABY, POLLY SYLVIA, URSULA HAWLITSCKA AND MARIE FARES

ROOM 409, RUTGERS STUDENT CENTER

126 COLLEGE AVENUE, NEW BRUNSWICK, NJ

Solidarity delegations that have recently returned from the West Bank & Gaza Strip in December 2003 will report on the situation throughout Occupied Palestine. Reports include information on the wall in Qalqilya and reports from Nablus and Gaza, which have been consistently under siege in the past few months, along with many areas throughout occupied Palestine.
