7:00 PM, THURS. FEB 6, 2003
TRAYES B, DOUGLASS COLLEGE CENTER
100 GEORGE ST. NEW BRUNSWICK, NJ

As a Democratic congresswoman from Georgia, Cynthia McKinney distinguished herself as a steadfast supporter of progressive causes--from women's issues to labor rights to environmental justice, she was on the front lines. A committed supporter of justice in United States foreign policy, McKinney's support for Palestinian human rights and her opposition to the war in Iraq have earned her controversy and praise. Targeted for defeat in the 2002 elections, she has dedicated herself to building coalitions for justice within the United States and abroad.
