

PALESTINIAN POLITICAL PRISONERS: The Prisoners of Freedom

Film Screenings and Discussion Featuring “Women in Struggle” and “Stolen Youth”

The over 11,000 Palestinian political prisoners - activists, organizers and leaders, men, women and children - have been a prominent topic in recent news. 255 Palestinian prisoners were released on July 20, while nearly 300 additional prisoners were taken in the week prior to the release. Palestinian prisoners represent every major Palestinian political organization, and include 41 members of the elected Palestinian Legislative Council. On July 29, the trial of Ahmad Sa'adat, Palestinian political prisoner and General Secretary of the Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine, is scheduled to begin, over a year after he was kidnapped from Jericho prison in an Israeli military attack. Other key Palestinian political leaders, including Marwan Barghouti of Fateh and Aziz Dweik, the Hamas speaker of the Legislative Council, are also imprisoned.

Join us for two remarkable films and edifying discussion about Palestinian political prisoners, and to find out..

Who are the Palestinian prisoners?
Why are they held?
Why are they important?
What is the United States' role?
What can you do to help?

Saturday, July 28 2 PM - 4 PM

Old Bergen Church, 1 Highland Ave, Jersey City, NJ

(at the corner of Highland and Bergen, near Journal Square PATH)

For more information, questions, or directions, contact the sponsors:
New Jersey Solidarity - Activists for the Liberation of Palestine
Web: www.newjerseysolidarity.org Email: info@newjerseysolidarity.org Phone: 973-954-2521