Ramzy Baroud, editor of the Palestine Chronicle and of the new book, Searching Jenin: Eyewitness Accounts of the Israeli Invasion 2002, will speak and present the book. Composed of over sixty articles by scholars, activists and ordinary Palestinians, the book, edited by Baroud with a foreword by Noam Chomsky, seeks to give a voice to and tell the stories of Palestinians living through Israeli invasion.

"I am grateful to the editors of this volume for preserving the truth of Jenin's martyrdom for future generations - and, in doing so, redeeming in some small measure the suffering endured there." -Prof. Norman G. Finkelstein
