ARNA'S CHILDREN

HOW THE CHILDREN OF A PALESTINIAN THEATRE GROUP GOT INVOLVED IN THE INTIFADAH 85 MINUTES. A FILM BY JULIANO MER KHAMIS

Arna Mer Khamis was a legendary activist against the Israeli Occupation. Born into a Jewish family she married a Palestinian Arab and spent her life campaigning for justice and human rights in her homeland. Arna founded an alternative education system for Palestinian children whose lives had been disrupted by Israeli occupation. In the Jenin refugee camp, Arna opened a theatre group where she taught the children to express anger, bitterness and fear through acting and art. Five years after Arna's death, Juliano, her son, returns to the camp to discover what happened to "Arna's Children."
